

Update: The U.S. Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) has told www.freshfruitportal.com that contrary to what has been published by AQSIQ, Washington apples are still banned from the Chinese market. Chinese authorities have not yet responded to requests to explain why this fruit was included in the list.

Washington apples and Israeli citrus are just two of several new fresh fruit items listed by China's General Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine (AQSIQ) as approved for import.

On Sept. 17, the authority published a long list of fresh fruit exports allowed into China by country of origin, which also included the lifting of bans on Uruguayan citrus and Thai cherimoyas.
